4 Names of Satan

1. Dis (Another name for the Roman god Pluto) In ancient Roman mythology, Dis Pater ("Father Dis") is the ruler of the underworld and is named as such in the sixth book of Virgil's "Aeneid", one of the principal influences on Dante in his depiction of Hell (the god was also known as Pluto, a name not used by Virgil in the Aeneid). (Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Dis_(Divine_Comedy))
2. Lucifer "The Light Bearer"
3. Satan
4. Beelzebub The Dictionnaire Infernal describes Beelzebub as a being capable of flying, known as the "Lord of the Flyers", or the "Lord of the Flies". (Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Beelzebub)

Practice Test and Answers

Multiple Choice

1. What is the city that Dante loved and hated?
    1. Florence

2. How old was he when he "made" (of course, it's fictional) his journey?
    1. 35

3. What two concepts are linked by the term "contrapasso"?
    1. Sin and punishment

4. Who is fair of face and foul of form?
    1. Geryon

5. How does Minos signal the destination of each sinner who faces him?
    1. With his tail

6-8/ Identify the punishment of each of the following:

6. The Usurers?
    1. Lying in burning desert sands

7. The Lustful?
    1. Storm winds

8. The Gluttons?
    1. Dirty rain